THE LATEST AND NOT THE WORST STORY OF THE PRESIDENT -- The Alexandria State Journal gives the ollowing good story as having been related to one of its editors:

Just before the Presidential election when many of the soldiers about Washington were furloughed, in o der that they might return to their homes and exercise their right of voting, a private, wearing a McClellan badge on his breast, appeared at the transportation office with his furlough and requisite transportation to the North. For some reason or other, probably because the zeal of the officials outran their sense of justice, the soldier was for a day or two unable to obtain the requisite transportation. He saw others passed rapidly by the board, but was not able to obtain a hearing himself. At length, disgusted with the long delay, resulting evidently from the unfairness of the official, he determined to appeal directly to the President. Upon being admitted to the President, he told him in brief terms, the story of his delay at the transportation office, and the object of his visit to the White House, prefacing the whole by a candid declaration that he was a McClettan man, and was going home to vote for McClel an. Mr. Lincoln asked for his furlough, and glancing over it to satisfy himself that it was all right, wrote on the back of it these words: -- Let this man have transportation immediately. A. Liacola," and handed it back to the soldier. The latter looked at the order for a moment, and then exclaimed, When I came here this morning, Mr. Lincoln, I was fully determined to vote for McClellan, if I could get home, but I have now changed my mind, and shall vote for you. You have satisfied me that you are worthy of being President, and I shall do all I can to re-elect

AN AGREEABLE SERENADE - We were last night the recipients of a delightful serenade from our friends of Heald's American Brass Band. This fine new band which has attracted so much attention lately whenever it has appeared in public, was organized in April last. It is composed of 14 pieces, and the members are mostly young mechanics employed in the plumber's department of the Navy Yard. The leader, Mr L. A. Heald, is an accomplished musician and amongst the members are performers of such note as Mr Roundiree. merly of Baltimore, Mr. Tyler and Mr. Coyle. The proficiency attained by this band in the short time it has been organized dispels the idea entertained by some that a good brass band cannot be made up of American performers. We cordially wish success to this excellent band and their gentlemanly leader.

REPREHENSIBLE .- On the commons east of the Capitol, there are a number of glandered horses running at large, endangering other horses and cattle in that section of the city. These diseased animals are Government condemned, and were probably diseased when purchased by the present owners. There being a severe penalty imposed by law on owners who allow diseased horses to run at large, no one of the owners will "own up." The neighbors in that part of the city wish to know how this nuisance is to be abated.

ORPHANS' COURT, Judge Purcell - Yesterday, letters testamentary were issued to John R. Elvans on the estate of the late Mary Ann

Letters of administration were issued to Abraham J. Kimmell on the estate of John E. Foulkes, and also on the estate of Elizabeth A. Fourkes. SENT TO JAIL POR COURT .- Albert Foster, Hensen Harris and Charles Carter, three colored boys, arrested by the Fourth Ward police for the larceny of parts of an engine belonging to the Messrs. Towers's printing establishment, were sent to jail yesterday by Justice Giberson. They are 12, 13 and 14 years old respectively.

ALEXANDRIA AFFAIRS .- The Alexandria State Journal of last evening says: Lelend A. Lynn, a former postmaster at Occoquan, who, instead of delivering the New York Tribune to subscribers, burned it as an incendiary sheet, was a few days since arrested in Prince William county because his dress resembled so much that of a guerrilla. The right shoulder of his butternut jacket was worn out as though he had been carrying a gun upon it. He explained this by stating that he did not own, nor could not procure, a horse to haul his fuel from the woods, and, being comp-lled to "tote" it upon his shoulder, he had worn out his jacket, as above stated. He was sent to this city, where he now is. As he took the oath over a year ago, and as there is no proof against him, he will no doubt be released. The following cases have been disposed of before Capt. Mason, Acting Provost Judge, since our last report :- B. B. Chase, the sutler of the Washington street military prison, was arrested upon the charge of selling liquor, found guilty, sentenced to pay a fine of $100, and ordered to close his store within three days. Frank Hanks, a member of the lst D C. voinnteers, charged with being absent from his post without authority, and playing detective, was sentenced to the slave pen for three

Gov. Pierpont returned to this city to-day. after an absence of over one month, during the greater part of which time he has been actively engaged in stumping New York and New Jersey in behalf of Mr. Lincoln and the Union tickets of those States. He is welcomed home by the hearty congratulations of his friends. All the citizens who have recently been employed as train guards have been released, and heavy details from the guerrilla prisoners in our hands will in future be used for the same precautionary purpose.

MISSING .- About 10 o'clock a. m.. Monday, a young man went to Mr. Wm Hayes' boarding. house, No. 84% street, and took board. Yesterday about noon he was missed. Mr. M. A. Watson also missed an English sack coat, of black broadcloth, and a double breasted vest of the same goods, and a pair of kid gloves. Mr. H. C. Studley also missed a dress coat and a pair of gloves. It looks very suspicious that this young man, who gave his name as Donglass, should be missed at the same time that the clothing was missed.

RENEFIT BALL .- We call attention to the announcement of a ball to be held at Island Hall Nov. 24th for the benefit of a drafted man of the Seventh Ward. It will be seen that the ball is to be given under the direction of an excellent committee of management, and as the beneficiary is a popular member of the police force in that ward, the affair will undoubtedly be a great success. All the pretty ladies of the Seventh Ward will be there, and that will be great attraction in itself.

GROVERS' NEW THEATER. NEAR WILLARD'S HOTEL.-Grand matinee for the benefit of the Newsboys' Home, on Saturday afternoon, November 19th, at 3 o'clock. Messrs. Wallack and Davenport and Miss Susan Denin, together with the excellent Company and Or. chestra, have kindly volunteered their services for the occasion. An attractive bill will be presented. nov 16-3t*
